International Student Programs Terms and Conditions for Homestay Providers

This Agreement

Your Agreement with us is comprised of:

- your Application to us;
- our letter of acceptance to you;
- these International Student Programs (ISP) Terms and Conditions for Homestay Providers; and
- the Child and Youth Risk Management Strategy (the Strategy) as in effect at any given time.

The laws in force in the State of Queensland, Australia govern this Agreement.

Unless a term states otherwise, these ISP Terms and Conditions for Homestay Providers apply to you when hosting an Overseas student in any Department of Education International (DEi) program.

Homestay Procedures

As a homestay provider you must comply with the roles and responsibilities assigned to you as outlined in the following procedures published on the Department of Education (the department) Policy and Procedure Register (PPR):

- DEi recruit and on-board homestay providers procedure
- DEi student homestay placement procedure
- DEi homestay provider management procedure
- DEi incident management procedure
- Non-routine travel and activities for homestay students - subclass 500 \(schools\) visa procedure
- Welfare management - subclass 500 \(schools\) visa procedure

As a homestay provider you must also be aware of the Department's PPR and the procedures where we will contact you to seek information or discuss information including but not limited to your overseas student's visa compliance, behaviour and adherence to the International Student Programs Standard Terms and Conditions.

1. Accommodation

1.1 Your home

You must provide your overseas student with accommodation, including:

- a clean and tidy household with access to shared living areas;
- reasonable gas, electricity, heating and water;
- a safe, secure and private bedroom for your overseas student's sole use, with a bed and suitable storage space for clothes, personal effects and study materials;
- access to secure internet;
- study facilities including a desk, chair, and adequate lighting;

- kitchen, bathroom and laundry facilities;
- household essentials such as soap, toilet paper, laundry products, towels, sheets, blankets, eating and cooking utensils; and
- any keys, alarm codes or passwords required for your overseas student to have free access to the homestay residence.

You must notify us in writing as soon as possible if you propose to materially change your home (for example, by renovating or relocating).

1.2 Inspections

You must allow us to inspect your home prior to us approving your home for an overseas student and at least biannually under the ongoing monitoring welfare arrangements, if 14 days written notice is provided. In the event of an emergency or critical incident, you must allow us to inspect your home immediately.

1.3 Other residents

You must provide us with up-to-date details of all residents in your home, including adult guests frequenting your home for 7 days or more in a calendar year. We require the following details for each resident in your home: name, date of birth, relationship with homestay provider, and anticipated and actual amount of time spent at the home. You must notify us as soon as possible (in advance) before a person moves in or out of your home. We also require details of your blue card status.

You must not host more than three overseas students enrolled in an ISP course from any education provider in your home at the same time. When hosting more than two students, consent from each student and parent/agent is required and we need to provide you approval in writing. If more than one overseas student is hosted, they should not be from the same nationality or linguistic or cultural background unless we have given you approval in writing. You may host students on short-term study tours, however, it is your responsibility to notify the school of these arrangements to seek approval. Hosting more than two students may have a financial implication, it is your responsibility to seek financial advice regarding these arrangements.

1.4 Meals

You must provide your overseas student with three meals each day and reasonable access to snacks and fruit. Breakfast and lunch may be self-service and dinner should be a meal with the family. There should be a nutritional variety of food with some choice to accommodate cultural differences. Students should be advised of mealtimes. Meals should be nutritious and in accordance with your overseas student's dietary and medical needs.

2. Travel and activities

2.1 Supervision

You must ensure that your overseas student is appropriately supervised at all times. The level of supervision required will vary depending on their age and maturity.

You must:

- ensure your overseas student is appropriately supervised outside school hours;
- not allow your overseas student to be unsupervised overnight;
- monitor your overseas student's social and recreational activities;
- support your overseas student by discussing routine activities and identify where reasonable restrictions need to be implemented for your overseas student's safety;

- only permit your overseas student to stay away overnight or undertake high risk activity if your student has our prior written approval using the ISP travel and activities request form;
- immediately advise us if you have any concerns for your overseas student's health, safety or wellbeing;
- contact 1800QSTUDY if you have any health, safety or wellbeing concerns for your student outside of school hours and follow the DEi Incident management procedure;
- never leave your overseas student to supervise younger children, even for a short time;
- use your best endeavours to assist your overseas student to comply with school rules and their Enrolment agreement with us (including our ISP Standard Terms and Conditions for overseas students); and
- immediately notify us if you are permanently or temporarily unable to host or ensure appropriate supervision of your overseas student.

2.2 School

You must:

- take your overseas student to school on their first day;
- assist your overseas student to attend school, on time, every school day and comply with the Attendance – subclass 500 \(schools\) visa procedure;
- encourage your overseas student to comply with the Course progress – subclass 500 \(schools\) visa procedure (for example, by encouraging them to complete homework and to study);
- notify the school of any concerns you have about your overseas student's school attendance or academic performance (including, for example, if they are experiencing difficulties because of part-time or casual employment); and
- assist your overseas student to participate in extra-curricular activities arranged or recommended by the school.

2.3 Transport, travel and activities

If we ask you to collect your overseas student from the airport when they first arrive in Australia without one of our staff being present, and you agree, you must notify us that your overseas student has arrived, once they are in your care.

You must:

- ensure your overseas student has safe and appropriate transport to and from school, extra-curricular activities, medical appointments and other routine activities;
- ensure that your overseas student obtains our prior written consent before participating in any high risk activity and/or overnight travel and/or activities (including any overnight travel with you); and
- immediately notify us if you become aware that your overseas student intends to participate or has participated in a high risk activity or travel without our approval.

2.4 Driving

You must not permit your overseas student:

- to be a passenger in a vehicle driven by a driver with a learner licence (L-plates) without written permission from their parents and us;
- to be a passenger in a vehicle driven by a driver with a provisional driver licence (P-plates) without written permission from their parents and us; or
- to be a passenger in a vehicle unless the vehicle is registered, roadworthy, properly maintained and has adequate insurance to cover damage to property and injury to persons.

An overseas student may only drive a vehicle with written permission from the overseas student's parent or legal custodian and us when:

- holding a Queensland driver's licence; and
- the vehicle is subject to full comprehensive insurance that has coverage for an at-fault driver.

2.5 Swimming and water activities

Please be aware that, regardless of the age of your overseas student, all water activities are high risk. You must exercise extreme caution and ensure close supervision around home swimming pools, beaches and other bodies of water.

Overseas students must undertake a Water Skills Assessment facilitated by the school if they would like to be approved to take part in any water activity not arranged by the school. This means that both the Water Skills Assessment and ISP travel and activities request form are required prior to participating in water activities.

3. Conduct, behaviour and wellbeing

3.1 International Student Programs Standard Terms and Conditions

We require your overseas student to comply with the ISP Standard Terms and Conditions.

You must notify us immediately if you suspect or become aware that your overseas student has been involved in a breach of the ISP Standard Terms and Conditions (for example, drinking alcohol, use of illegal drugs or any other illegal activity and breach of the 'Travel and Activities' procedure).

3.2 Conduct by you, your residents and your visitors

You must take on the role of a carer for homestay students residing with you. In this role you do not hold legal responsibility of these students. The role of carer includes, but is not limited to:

- general mentoring, support and assistance to maintain the student's welfare and wellbeing;
- providing a safe and welcoming homestay family environment that is conducive to the student's emotional, social, physical and educational wellbeing;
- encouraging your overseas student to experience life as a member of the family and assist students to adapt to the new culture and life;
- involving your overseas student in family related activities and events where suitable;

- promoting a family environment that is respectful and supportive of intercultural understanding;
- providing your overseas student with an orientation within the family home, the use of facilities and security. This should include but is not limited to household protocols, safety around the house including use of appliances, handling pets, and the use of shared areas or facilities such as swimming pools, internet and telephone; rules regarding routine activities, visitors and appropriate times to return home during the week and on weekends; and
- providing your overseas student with an orientation to the local area including but not limited to public transport and getting to and from school; the location of shops, doctors or medical facilities and recreation areas.

You must ensure you and everyone in your home complies with the Strategy and the legislation governing Blue Cards in Queensland which will be explained to you as part of your Orientation with the school. Further information about Blue Card requirements is available on the department's Policy, Procedure Register.

All people in the home should act in a way that would be appropriate when viewed by a third party (for example, do not put themselves in a position where they are vulnerable to accusations of wrongdoing), for example by ensuring that:

- your overseas student is not alone with you or another person (for example, another child) in a bedroom or bathroom with the door closed; and
- your overseas student is not permitted access to alcohol or offered alcohol by you or your guests.

3.3 Behaviour and wellbeing management

You must notify us if you encounter a behaviour or wellbeing management issue that you are unable to resolve with your overseas student. We have a range of strategies to address student misbehaviour and wellbeing concerns. In serious cases, your overseas student's participation in the homestay program or their enrolment with us may be cancelled.

If an overseas student exhibits behaviours that cause concern and may relate to the overseas student's experience of adaptation or culture shock, you must contact us to organise assistance with:

- mediation and counselling;
- language barriers and interpretation or translation services;
- intercultural understanding; and/or
- intervention strategies and support.

You must never subject your overseas student to physical punishment or verbal abuse.

4. Fees and payment

While your overseas student is living with you, they will provide us with a set payment to cover their living expenses. We will pay you those amounts in full. These payments are intended to reimburse you for the cost of hosting your overseas student. However, the amount is a set payment and is not variable depending on the actual cost of hosting your overseas student. The amount of the payments and the dates that we will pay you are indicated in the Payment Schedule.

If the overseas student chooses not to stay with you during the agreed homestay period, then you are entitled to full payment (except during the December-January school holiday period when a holding fee applies). If you are unavailable to host the overseas student for a period of time, we may reduce the homestay fee payable to you for that period or reallocate the homestay fee payable to an alternative homestay provider for that period.

If the overseas student's course includes the December-January school holiday period, the overseas student must pay either homestay fees for that period they remain in the residence or the homestay holding fee for periods of absence.

We may vary the Payment Schedule by giving you a new Payment Schedule. The new Payment Schedule will replace the previous Payment Schedule from the effective date specified. We will endeavour to give you at least four weeks' written notice before a new Payment Schedule becomes effective.

If we overpay you, we may reduce your future homestay fees by the amount of the overpayment or require you to repay the overpayment to us within 14 days. The overpayment will be a debt due and owing to us by you.

You must never request homestay fees directly from your overseas student.

The ISP Terms and Conditions for Homestay Providers should be read in the context of, and in conjunction with the ISP Standard Terms and Conditions and the ISP refund request form.

If you have a question or concern about the payment of homestay fees, you can contact us.

5. Moving a student

5.1 Moving a student by us

We may move your overseas student from your home if we provide you with two weeks prior written notice. We may move your overseas student from your home immediately and without notice if we believe there are circumstances that warrant urgent action. Circumstances that warrant urgent action may include:

- if we suspect or become aware that your overseas student may be at risk of harm (without conducting an investigation into the truth of any allegations or concerns);
- if there is a breach of this Agreement;
- if there is a breach of the Strategy;
- if you fail to ensure that the information we hold about you is correct, complete and current; or
- in an emergency or critical incident.

5.2 Moving a student at your request

If you are unable to host your overseas student for any reason you must notify us as soon as possible.

If you are able but would prefer not to host your overseas student, you may request us to move your overseas student temporarily or permanently by giving at least four weeks prior written notice. We will endeavour to move your overseas student to a different home.

We will not move students at your request within the first four weeks of a homestay placement unless there are exceptional circumstances.

6. Safety and medical

6.1 Medical and emergencies

You must:

- assist your overseas student to attend any routine medical, dental, hospital or other health-related appointments; and

- notify us immediately (after school hours, report any incident involving the overseas student to 1800QSTUDY (1800778839) as required in the DEi incident management procedure).

Where we have received permission from the overseas student's parent or legal custodian to administer and manage your Overseas student's medications, you must assist your overseas student to administer and manage their medications except in extenuating circumstances.

In extenuating circumstances, only with our permission and in your overseas student's best interests, you may:

- provide or administer over-the-counter or prescribed medication to your Overseas student; and
- administer first aid.

Extenuating circumstances include where we think your overseas student needs treatment from a health care professional and we have been unable to obtain permission from the parents or legal custodians. We may authorise any medical and other professional treatment that we believe to be in your overseas student's best interests. This includes hospital transfers, emergency procedures, and administering drugs and medications. To do this, we may request for you to sign consents to medical and other health procedures on our behalf.

6.2 Safety

You must notify us immediately if you suspect or become aware that your overseas student or any student in our homestay program has been harmed or is at risk of harm.

You must notify us immediately if your overseas student reports to you that they or any student in our homestay program has been harmed or is at risk of harm.

You must inform us immediately if you suspect or become aware that your overseas student or any student in our homestay program has engaged in or is at risk of engaging in inappropriate or unlawful sexual conduct.

You must notify us immediately if you suspect or become aware that any person has been harmed by or is at risk of harm from your overseas student or any student in our homestay program

6.3 Blue Cards and Exemption Cards

To remain an approved homestay provider, you and every other adult resident or adult guest frequenting your home for 7 or more days in a calendar year must hold a Blue Card or an Exemption Card.

It is the card holder's responsibility to notify Blue Card services immediately if there is a change in their police information.

7. Information and communication

Communication with your overseas student

If you need help communicating with your overseas student, you should contact us for assistance.

7.1 Communication with us

You may communicate with us as specified in Schedule 1 – Contacts. The appropriate contact will differ depending on the nature of the communication.

You must:

- maintain regular contact with us to discuss the homestay placement and your overseas student's wellbeing;
- meet with school staff as required; and
- use reasonable endeavours to attend orientations, meetings and information sessions arranged by us in relation to the homestay program.

7.2 QParents

If you are granted access to an overseas student's QParents account, you must only use the account to view and edit the attendance and view the course progress of an overseas student. You must not provide consent on behalf of an overseas student in any circumstances. Parental consent is to be sought directly from the overseas student's parent or legal guardian.

If you are registered as the QParents account owner for your overseas student, you must:

- invite your overseas student's parents to be delegated viewers and nominate that they can view all information sets; and
- not allow any other person to be a delegated viewer unless we give you written instructions to the contrary.

7.3 Your information

You must ensure that the information we hold about you is correct, complete and current.

You must not collect sensitive personal information about your overseas student unless required or authorised by law or the student consents to the collection and the collection is reasonably necessary for or directly related to your compliance with this Agreement or your compliance with the Strategy.

You must only collect, record, use or disclose your overseas student's personal information for the purpose of complying with this Agreement or the Strategy. You must not collect, record, store, use or disclose (including on social media) your overseas student's personal information except:

On our request, you must promptly return or permanently destroy all records of the personal information of your overseas student that we provided to you (including copies).

If you become aware that you have collected, recorded, stored, used or disclosed your overseas student's personal information in a manner inconsistent with the Information Privacy Act 2009 (Qld) or are otherwise concerned about the treatment of your overseas student's personal information, you must notify us as soon as possible and use your best efforts to assist us to rectify any privacy breach and to prevent recurrence of any such breaches. You must fully cooperate with us in relation to any privacy complaint that relates to you or treatment of your overseas student's personal information.

7.5 Your privacy

We collect your personal information when you apply to be a homestay provider and, if your application is approved, while you are a registered as a homestay provider.

We may record, use and disclose your personal information for the purpose of assessing your application to become an approved homestay provider, administering this Agreement, administering the homestay program generally (including discharging our duty of care to overseas students in the Education Queensland International (EQI) homestay program), and complying with Australian laws and our policies and procedures. We may record, use and disclose your personal information including name, date of birth, address, Blue Card number and homestay approval status to create and maintain a register of approved and non-approved homestay providers accessible to us, Australian authorities relevant to overseas students and Australian schools who provide or may provide courses to overseas students and you consent to such recording, use and disclosure.

Records, including of your personal information, are retained and disposed of in accordance with the Public Records Act 2002.

Where an overseas student is placed with you, there will be ongoing communication and exchange of information, including your personal information, between us, you, your overseas student, your overseas student's parents and your overseas student's education agent if they have one.

8.2 Suspension

If you are in breach of this Agreement, we may give you a notice explaining what you must do to remedy the breach and we may suspend your registration until the breach has been remedied.

If we suspend your registration, we will move your overseas student out of your home.

8.3 Termination and Cancellation

We are required under the Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000 (ESOS Act) and related instruments to ensure that legislative child welfare standards are upheld.

If you are not in breach of this Agreement, we may by written notice terminate this Agreement and/or cancel your registration as a homestay provider for any or no reason by providing you with:

- at least two weeks' written notice, if you do not have an overseas student living with you, or
